405 Sloan Street Apt. 1602
Taylor, Texas 76574

Dear Caroline Bolton,

Note: This letter is to inform you of deductions against your security deposit. You are encouraged to read this letter with care in the event that you wish to protest any charges determined to be your responsibility under the lease agreement.

We would like to thank you sincerely for your time as our tenant and express our continued appreciation of your cooperation and understanding as we finalize your move-out. We would also like to wish you the best in your new home.

GDAA Property Management's move-out procedures are expertly designed to minimize or eliminate any doubt regarding the final condition of your rental, and to establish an accurate weight of responsibility toward the assessment of any charges levied against your security deposit. It has therefore been determined through our diligent and thorough review process that the itemized list of charges against your account are valid and made in good faith beyond a reasonable doubt. Our determination of your responsibility under the lease agreement was reached through consideration of, though not limited to:

- A thorough review of the move-out condition assessment and review of move-out photos against any move-in pictures that were taken directly prior to your occupancy;
- The tenant move-in condition checklist, if provided by you at time of move-in, that was diligently and accurately populated with your observations and concerns regarding the property when you began occupancy, and;

- Any post-occupancy issues that may have arisen that were determined to be a not-at-fault occurrence and the responsibility of the Landlord, per the lease.

If it is your opinion that any assessment levied under these considerations was made in error, be advised that you are afforded thirty (30) days from the postmark or electronic delivery date of this letter to submit your dispute.

We do not, under any circumstances, discuss security deposit disposition disputes by telephone or in person.

If there is a balance due on your account please ensure your balance due is submitted within 30 days or your account will be turned over for collections, which can adversely affect your credit report. In addition, a collection charge of 35% will be added to your balance due.

Please be sure to monitor your emails, as any invoices and photos pertaining to your move-out have been sent to your email so that you can have a copy of your report for your records. You must submit all further correspondence concerning this matter in writing by email to info@gdaapm.com, by fax to (512) 579-4220 or to our physical office address at 2300 Greenhill Dr., Bldg. 2, Ste. 250, Round Rock, TX 78664 within the allotted time period. We will gladly and diligently review your case and will contact you within 14 days in writing with a determination of our final decision.

Sincerely,

Elizabeth Corah
